Information about the service

What is the service?

CWNet's nbn® broadband service uses nbn® infrastructure (e.g. Fibre To The Premises, HFC, Fibre To The Curb, or Fibre To The Node) to deliver broadband to your premises. These services provide the typical evening download and upload speeds listed for each plan in the table above.

Where is it available?

These services are available anywhere where nbn® has been rolled out - for more details please you can visit <https://www.nbnco.com.au/learn/rollout-map>

What do I need to access the service?

- Where applicable, nbn® will need to install equipment on the outside and inside (near a power point) of your premises. A person over 18 will need to be at home for this appointment.
- You will also need an NBN-ready router capable of higher speeds for the 1000 plan (see "Equipment fees" on next page.)
- FTTC customers only will also need an nbn® network connection device & HFC customers will need an nbn® Network Termination Device provided free of charge by nbn®.

Important note for FTTN and FTTC customers:

- Your copper phone line will be taken over by the connection. This means that you need to transfer to an IP phone service (internet-based phone) or you will lose your current landline phone connection.
- You may find that all the phone sockets within your premises are disabled.
- If you have more than one phone line into your property, you can opt for nbn® on one line, and to keep your landline on the other, for a service fee of $297. Please be aware that this second line will be shut down in 18 months from the time nbn® went live in your area.

Speeds

The actual speed of your internet service is dependent on several factors including:

- The type of NBN technology available
- Customer premise equipment such as your modem/router
- Internal cabling
- Network congestion
- Speed plan chosen

What is included?

Features of this service include:

- Australian-based phone support
- Unlimited data on all plans

Bundling

Bundling is not compulsory. You can opt to bundle a VoIP home phone service or any of our bolt-on features like a Static IP or VoIP Service.
